

Quality policy: The Al Shifa College of Nursing committed to achieve the highest standard in nursing education, service and research by meeting the global standards through quality education, devoted nursing care and emphasis on need-based research.

Quality objectives:

- ❖ Promote the scientific base of nursing knowledge and skill through innovative teaching methodology.
- ❖ Develop professional nurses who render prevention and curative health care.
- ❖ Enhance the professional growth of nursing through continued research process.
- ❖ Mould student as an individual, citizen and as a perspective member of the profession in order to uphold the dignity of the profession.